

NAME :

DATE :

9- Write the verbs in past tense:

Andy Warhol is the tiniest and palest child. He lives in Pittsburgh, USA. But he is from Slovakia. He spends every minute drawing, but he is too shy to share his work. He plays baseball with his brothers. He always carries his sketchbook with him. When he is eight, his legs starts shaking and he has to stay in bed for months. He has a great time cutting up pictures from the magazines. Andy wishes he could be as charming, rich and famous as the faces in his collages. He goes to an Art Club but he feels invisible. By the time the rest of the students finish one picture, he has put together lots of pictures. Andy wins a prize. He is so proud, he wants more. He takes the train to New York and he publishes his first illustration for a glamorous magazine. They forget to write the letter A at the end of his surname so instead of Andy Warhola, he becomes Andy Warhol. He draws shoes, colourful make-up and sunglasses for the best magazines. He loves ordinary things like tomato soup. He always has tomato soup for lunch. Andy decides to make 32 pictures of 32 soup cans. His first exhibition looks like a supermarket. People are surprised. Andy is the king of "Pop Art".