Much / Many / A lot of and How much / How many

A Read the answers and complete the quiz questions. Use How much / How many.

1. How much _____?
   A: A dishwasher uses about 12 liters of water for one wash.
2. _____?
   A: A British person eats 1,200 chickens in their lifetime.
3. _____?
   A: The British drink 165,000,000 cups of tea in one day.
4. _____?
   A: 42 coffee beans go into an espresso.
5. _____?
   A: It takes a kettle about two and a half minutes to boil.
6. _____?
   A: The average American receives six vacation days.
7. _____?
   A: One orange has 60ml of juice.
8. _____?
   A: There are 3 million lakes in Alaska.

B Complete the conversations with a lot of, much, or many.

1. A: How many eggs are there in the fridge? Should I buy more?
   B: There are _____ eggs. You don't need to buy any more.
2. A: I drink _____ coffee in the morning. How about you?
   B: I don't drink _____ coffee, just one cup.
3. A: This soup isn't very nice. Is there any salt in it?
   B: A little, but I didn't add _____ salt. Here, you can add some more now.
4. A: Do you want any ice cream with your cake?
   B: Yes, please! I can eat _____ dessert.
5. A: The children are so energetic! What's going on?
   B: Grandma gave them _____ sugar – cookies, cake, and ice cream. I'm afraid they won't sleep.
6. A: What did you eat for dinner at the airport?
   B: I didn't have _____ choices, so I just got some fast food.
7. A: This tea tastes different. What's in it?
   B: We didn't have _____ sugar, so I used honey instead. Do you like it?
8. A: Is it OK if I open another box of cereal?
   B: Sure. I bought _____ cereal. Have as much as you want.

LIVEWORKSHEETS