Fill in the blanks. (Textfield)

1. I dare not _____ your gift. It's too expensive!
2. Take a deep _____ and try to relax.
3. The loud music can _____ your concentration.

Multiple Choice Question. (Select)

1. What can be inferred about the narrator?

   A. He has little imagination.
   B. He is worried about Miss Sylvia.
   C. He studies people very carefully.
   D. He already knew Miss Sylvia's story.

2. Which quotation from the passage supports the theme of the passage?

   A. "For the first two days after the arrival at the hotel she sat in her corner alone."
   B. "Miss Sylvia liked us all, but I was her favorite."
   C. "In my own excuse I must allege that she tempted me to do it."
   D. "Oh, no, no; don't let him go away without telling her—just telling her."

3. What effect does the narrator's story have on Miss Sylvia?

   A. It upsets her.
   B. It comforts her.
   C. It irritates her.
   D. It angers her.

Drop-down. (Single Choice)

It is raining out, so you should probably take your Select... ▼ with you to work today.

Lunch will be provided by the new facility, and Select 3... ▼ going to be a hot lunch, made possible because of the large kitchen area on the third floor.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Drag and drop. (Drag, Drop)

Words That Describe the Sun	Words That Do Not Describe the Sun

hot

yellow

green

large

extinct

freezing

LIVEWORKSHEETS