

Directions: Write a short story about your favorite animal. You must give your story a name and include all of the parts of a paragraph. Remember, the parts of a paragraph are the topic sentence, the detail sentences and the concluding sentence. You must also use adjectives to describe the animal and bring them to life as you write about them. You may want to write about a tiger, an elephant, a giraffe or a shark. You can choose any animal you like.