

Where Can Tourists Eat and Shop?

Match each place with the correct activity: eating, shopping, or both!

Places

-  restaurant |
-  café |
-  street food stand
-  market |
-  supermarket |
-  bakery |

Activities

-  buy food and groceries
-  buy bread and pastries
-  drink coffee, eat a snack
-  eat a meal
-  buy fruits, vegetables
-  buy quick food

Vocabulary

a Match the words and photos.

Food and drink

Breakfast

/ˈbrekfəst/

- bread /bred/
- butter /ˈbʌtər/
- cereal /ˈsɪriəl/
- 1 cheese /tʃiːz/
- coffee /ˈkɒfi/
- eggs /egz/
- jam /dʒæm/
- (orange) juice /dʒʊs/
- milk /mɪlk/
- sugar /ˈʃʊɡər/
- tea /ti/
- toast /təʊst/

Lunch /lʌntʃ/ or dinner /ˈdɪnər/

- fish /fɪʃ/ e.g.,
salmon, tuna
- herbs /ɜːbz/
- meat /miːt/
e.g., chicken,
sausages, steak
- (olive) oil /ɔɪl/
- pasta /ˈpɑːstə/
- rice /raɪs/
- salad /ˈsæləd/
- seafood /ˈsiːfud/
- spices /ˈspɑːsɪz/

Vegetables

/ˈvedʒtəblz/

- carrots /ˈkærəts/
- French fries /ˈfrentʃ fraɪz/
- lettuce /ˈletəs/
- mushrooms /ˈmʌʃrʊmz/
- onions /ˈɒnyənz/
- peas /piːz/
- peppers /ˈpepərz/
- potatoes /pəˈteɪtəʊz/
- tomatoes /təˈmeɪtəʊz/

Fruit /frut/

- apples /ˈæplz/
- bananas /bəˈnænəz/
- oranges /ˈɒrɪndʒɪz/
- a pineapple /ˈpaɪnæpl/
- strawberries /ˈstrɒberɪz/

Desserts

/dɪˈzɜːts/

- cake /keɪk/
- fruit salad /ˈfrut ˈsæləd/
- ice cream /aɪs ˈkriːm/

Snacks

/snæks/

- candy /ˈkændi/
- chocolate /ˈtʃɒklət/
- cookies /ˈkʊkɪz/
- nuts /nʌts/
- potato chips
/pəˈteɪtəʊ ˈtʃɪps/
- a sandwich /ˈsændwɪtʃ/

Listen to the conversation. Write YES or NO for each question.

Statements

1. The guest has been staying at the hotel for a few days.
2. There are three restaurants near the bus station.
3. The supermarket is close to the plaza.
4. The bakery is next to the church.
5. There are many street food stands in the city.
6. The receptionist recommended a museum.

Look at the sentences. What do you notice about the words "some," "any," "much," "many," and "a lot of"? Look at the chart.

 Sentences

1. There are a lot of restaurants in the city center.
2. There aren't many supermarkets in the old town.
3. There isn't much street food near the plaza.
4. Are there any cafés near the beach?
5. There are some bakeries in the market.

Quantifier	Use With	Example from Sentences
some	countable nouns (+)
any	countable nouns (- / ?)
a lot of	countable nouns (+)
much	uncountable nouns (- / ?)
many	countable nouns (- / ?)

Imagine you are preparing a space in Cousiño for Tourist students from USA. Create a shopping list. Use quantifiers like some, any, a lot of, much, many in your sentences.

Examples

 We need some chairs for the restaurant.

 We need a lot of bread for breakfast.

Quantifier

some any a lot of much many

Word Bank

chairs · tables · bread · fruit · plates · cups · napkins · armchairs · shelves · juice · pastries · coffee machines · kettles

Read about the changes in a tourist destination. What improved? What food options are available now?

“Puerto Varas: A New Food Destination”

Ten years ago, Puerto Varas had only a few small cafés and not much street food.

There weren't many restaurants offering local food, and there wasn't much international cuisine.

Today, Puerto Varas is very different! There are a lot of seafood restaurants, and there are many coffee shops near the lake. There is some excellent street food at the main market.

Visitors love the mix of traditional and modern options. Tourists say there isn't much fast food, which they enjoy.

Local businesses now promote local fish, German pastries, and Chilean wines. Puerto Varas has become a food lover's favorite destination!

📌 "Puerto Varas: A New Food Destination"

Ten years ago, Puerto Varas had only a few small cafés and not much street food. There weren't many restaurants offering local food, and there wasn't much international cuisine.

Today, Puerto Varas is very different! There are a lot of seafood restaurants, and there are many coffee shops near the lake. There is some excellent street food at the main market.

Visitors love the mix of traditional and modern options. Tourists say there isn't much fast food, which they enjoy.

Local businesses now promote local fish, German pastries, and Chilean wines. Puerto Varas has become a food lover's favorite destination!

🧠 Comprehension Question

1. Were there many restaurants 10 years ago?
2. Are there a lot of seafood restaurants now?
3. Is there much fast food today?
4. What local foods are promoted today?