Friends

Some of my friends live nearby,
 and some live far away-
 in France, Japan, and Paraguay.
 I don't see them day to day.

We send each other e-mails,
 photos, and birthday cards.
 I love to hear from all my friends.
 It's fun and it isn't hard.

Friends with smiling faces,
 pen pals in distant places.
 I've got friends I write to near and far.

I write about my city life
 and what I see each day-
 the crowded streets, the noisy cars,
 and parks where children play.

One pen pal lives in the country.
 He writes me about the farm.
 He feeds chickens in the yard
 and milks cows in the barn.
