

Boon Khao Sak

residing, ancestors, ceremony, namesake, krayasat, sacred, paddies, gruat nam, provisioned, merit-making

1. Before the monk led the regular Thai Buddhist chanting, the people did their regular _____, passing merit onto their ancestors.
2. The monk led a regular Thai Buddhist suat-mon chanting and prayer session, but before that, the people did their regular _____ ceremony.
3. The text describes the Boon Khao Sak as a special _____ tradition.
4. The people were preparing for the celebration, and they did a lot of work the day before, so they were already well _____.
5. In the morning, the monk led a regular Thai Buddhist chanting and prayer session, and then the people did their regular _____ ceremony, passing merit onto their ancestors by pouring holy water onto the ground.
6. The text mentions the Boon Khao Sak celebration, which involves giving food to their _____.
7. The text describes the Boon Khao Sak celebration, which involves giving food to their _____ and to the rice field spirits.
8. The food baskets were blessed via _____ thread.
9. After the ceremonies, it was time for the monk to eat his mid-day meal, but before that, the people had to go to the rice _____ to give the food to the rice field spirits.
10. The text describes a sweetened puffed rice snack, the _____ in Thai, which was put in plastic bags for convenience.