

Choose the correct option (Simple Present or Present Continuous).

1. The doctor usually examines/is examining patients in the morning.
2. Right now, the nurse gives / is giving medicine to the patient.
3. Nurses check / are checking vital signs every shift.
4. Listen! The baby cry / is crying.
5. We often explain / are explaining procedures to patients' families.
6. At the moment, I take / 'm taking notes during the class.
7. The students attend / are attending a lecture at the university right now.
8. Nurses monitor / are monitoring patients in the ICU every day.
9. Look! The patient walks / is walking slowly after surgery.
10. She usually studies / is studying at the library in the evening.