GE9 VIEWS AND VOICES REVISION

1. Change the underlined words into ADJECTIVES to complete the sentences:

He helps to take care of his grandmother at home. He's a very _____ person.

She doesn't mind taking responsibility for her younger brother. She's a _____ sister.

He tends to defy his parents if they tell him what to do. He's a _____ child.

I generally rebel against any kind of authority. I'm pretty _____.

He disobeys some of the rules. He's a _____ citizen.

He doesn't care if he makes mistakes. He's very _____.

She doesn't respect the opinions of elders. She's quite _____to them.

She always shows great consideration for her friends and listens carefully to their problems. She's very _____ to them.

She has a strong ambition to become a successful doctor in the future. She's very _____ about her goals.

2. Complete the following sentences with the appropriate words:

We're not responsible for _____ care of these trees.

Teenagers are often _____ that they should think carefully about their future careers.

Every student is _____ to get good scores at school.

Clare is _____ to be the best doctor in the local hospital.

You are _____ to be home by now. Why are you still here?

Many patients _____ encouraged to exercise regularly to improve their health.

Young children are sometimes _____ not to watch violent films.

It is generally _____ that bilingual children have better problem-solving skills.

The sewer pipes are _____ fixed, so the road will _____blocked until noon.

LIVEWORKSHEETS