

You'll hear a conversation between two friends.

For statements 1-7, decide if each statement is 1-True, 2-False or 3-Not stated.

You'll hear the recording twice.

1. Sam hadn't heard about Buy Nothing Day before.
2. Buy Nothing Day organisers think shoppers should direct their attention elsewhere.
3. Sam learnt that underdeveloped countries make up 80% of the world's population.
4. Jane believes you cannot buy happiness.
5. Sam thinks Sunday trading is a good thing.
6. Sam found a definition of 'carbon footprint' in a dictionary.
7. Jane is no longer going to buy fruit and vegetables from the supermarket.

The image consists of two parts. On the left is a black poster for 'BUY NOTHING DAY'. The text 'BUY NOTHING DAY' is in large, bold, white letters. Below it is a small illustration of an eye. Underneath the illustration, it says 'A 24 HOUR MORATORIUM ON CONSUMER SPENDING'. At the bottom, it lists 'NORTH AMERICA NOV 27th' and 'INTERNATIONAL NOV 28th'. On the right is a photograph of three people standing outdoors, holding protest signs. The person on the left holds a sign that says 'STOP WASTEFUL SPENDING POLLUTING'. The person in the middle holds a sign that says 'MAYBE CHRISTMAS DOESNT COME FROM A STORE MAYBE CHRISTMAS PERHAPS MEANS A LITTLE BIT MORE'. The person on the right holds a large sign that says 'STOP BUYING START LIVING'. In the background, there are signs for 'COPELAND SPORTS', 'MACY'S', and 'VALLEY RIVER INN'. At the bottom of the photo, there is a caption that says 'Stop Buying Start Living Philadelphia, US' and a small text that says 'Send us your photos'.