

One-Word Answer Questions

Which hemisphere is tilted toward the Sun when it is summer there?

➡️ _____

What imaginary line divides the Earth into two hemispheres?

➡️ _____

At which place on Earth are there no distinct seasons?

➡️ _____

How many planets are in the solar system?

➡️ _____

What is the name of Earth's natural satellite?

➡️ _____

What do we call a lump of ice and dirt that moves around the Sun?

➡️ _____

What are the rocky objects between Mars and Jupiter called?

➡️ _____

What name do we give to rocks from space that enter Earth's atmosphere?

➡️ _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Who were the first humans to travel into space and land on the Moon? (general term)

➡️ ---------

What is the name of Saturn's moon where robots have landed?

➡️ ---------

What orbiting station around Earth carries astronauts and scientists?

➡️ ---------

What telescope was carried into space by the space station?

➡️ ---------

What do we call unmanned spacecraft that travel to planets and moons?

➡️ ---------

What is the whole of space called?

➡️ ---------

What do we call a huge group of stars?

➡️ ---------

What is the name of our galaxy?

➡️ ---------

Which American astronomer discovered other galaxies outside the Milky Way?

➡️ ---------

What did Edwin Hubble prove was expanding?

➡️ ---------

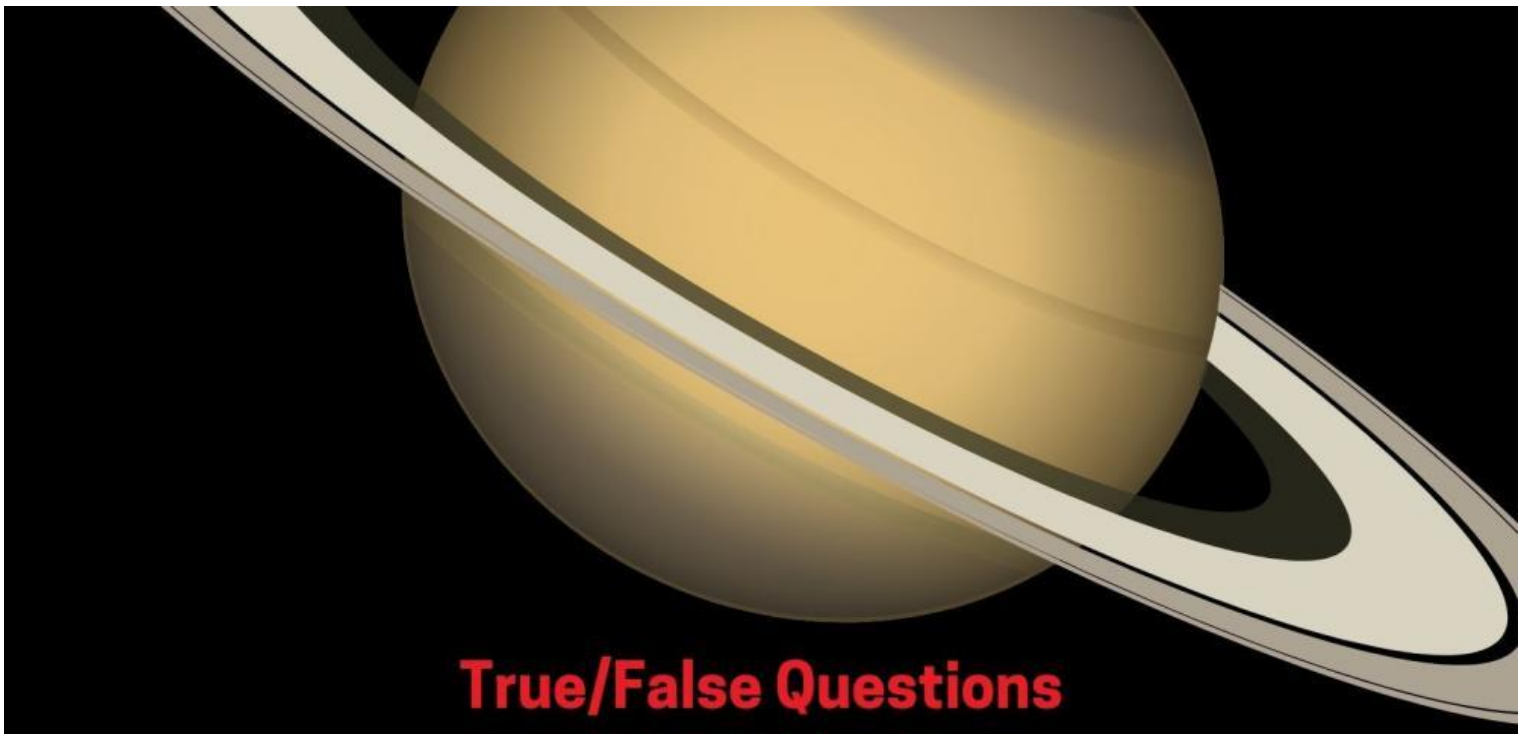

What instrument makes stars look bigger and brighter?

➡️ ---------

What is the small vehicle robot used on the Moon and Mars called?

➡️ ---------

LIVEWORKSHEETS

True/False Questions
WRITE T or F

1. The seasons are the same in both hemispheres at the same time. (____)
2. When the northern hemisphere has summer, the southern hemisphere has winter. (____)
3. At the equator, there are four distinct seasons. (____)
4. The solar system has eight planets. (____)
5. The Sun is a planet. (____)
6. The Moon is Earth's satellite. (____)
7. Comets are made of ice and dirt. (____)
8. Asteroids are found between Mars and Jupiter. (____)
9. Meteors are also called shooting stars. (____)
10. Astronauts have landed on the Moon. (____)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1. Astronauts have visited Mars. (____)
2. Robots have landed on Titan, Saturn's moon. (____)
3. The International Space Station orbits the Earth. (____)
4. The Hubble Space Telescope takes images of outer space. (____)
5. Probes are unmanned spacecraft controlled from Earth. (____)
6. The universe contains billions of galaxies. (____)
7. The Milky Way is the largest galaxy in the universe. (____)
8. Edwin Hubble discovered that the universe is expanding. (____)
9. Telescopes make distant objects appear bigger and brighter. (____)
10. Rovers are small vehicles used on the Moon and Mars. (____)

LIVEWORKSHEETS