

Simple Past vs Present Perfect

1 . Multiple Choice Questions – Write the letter corresponding to the answer

- I B my essay yesterday evening.
 - have finished
 - finished
 - have finish
 - finishing
 - finishes
- She A started her work yet.
 - hasn't
 - didn't
 - don't
 - wasn't
 - haven't
- We C our homework last night before watching Netflix.
 - do
 - have done
 - did
 - done
 - have do
- They D procrastinated too much this week.
 - did
 - were
 - has
 - have
 - was
- He D off preparing his presentation until the deadline.
 - puts
 - has put
 - have put
 - put
 - putting
- I E finished my tasks already.
 - did
 - am
 - was
 - has
 - have
- A you ever delayed your homework until the last minute?
 - Have
 - Did
 - Do
 - Does
 - Are
- We B to stop procrastinating last Monday.
 - promise
 - promised
 - have promised
 - promising
 - promises

9. She C her work today, so she can relax now.

- A) finish
- B) finishes
- C) has finished
- D) finished
- E) did finish

10. I E never postponed so many tasks in one week.

- A) am
- B) did
- C) was
- D) will
- E) have

2. Conjugate in the right tense

1. Yesterday I did not study (not study) because I was too tired.
2. She has not started (not start) her homework yet; she's still on TikTok.
3. Did you finish (finish) the project last Friday or did you procrastinate?
4. They have already postponed (already postpone) this meeting three times this month.
5. He did not leave (not leave) everything until the last minute this time.
6. Have you just finished (just finish) your essay, or are you still writing?

3. Complete sentences with proposed verbs (mix of forms)

1. I forgot (forgot / have forgotten) my planner yesterday.
2. She has wasted (wasted / has wasted) too many hours on YouTube this week.
3. We haven't done (didn't do / haven't done) our assignment yet.
4. They did not promise (promised / did not promise) last Monday to stop procrastinating.
5. Have you ever managed (never managed / have you ever managed) to finish on time?
6. I haven't watched (watched / haven't watched) that motivational video yet today.

4. Correct the mistakes

1. I didn't finished my work yet. → I haven't finished my work yet.
2. She has procrastinated last night instead of working. → She procrastinated last night instead of working.
3. We already did our tasks today. → We have already done our tasks today.
4. They have missed the deadline in 2020. → They missed the deadline in 2020.
5. Have you ever put off your homework yesterday? → Did you put off your homework yesterday?
6. I was never delayed an assignment in my life. → I have never delayed an assignment in my life.

5. Match halves – Write the number next to the right half.

A – Beginnings	B – Endings
1. I have already postponed...	a. ...their work on time? 5
2. He didn't procrastinate yesterday...	b. ...but I ended up scrolling Instagram all day. 6
3. We haven't finished...	c. ...the deadline last Friday. 4
4. She missed...	d. ...because the test was important. 2
5. Have they ever done...	e. ...our project yet. 3
6. Yesterday I was decided to work,...	f. ...three times this week. 1