Hello, everyone. I'm Tom. I'm ten years old, and I'm in class 5B. Today is Thursday. I have science, music, Vietnamese, and art. I like science a lot because I like doing experiments. I have science on Mondays and Thursdays. I love music, too. I'm good at playing the guitar. My friend, Jane, likes art because she likes making things. She also likes Vietnamese and English because she loves learning languages. What about you and your friend?
