

Hilarious moments of our lives

Before watching the video think about these questions:

1. Do you have brothers, sisters, or cousins? Did you share your childhood with them?
2. Why do you think it's important to treasure our childhood funny memories?

Watch the video without pausing it:

1. How many stories can you distinguish?
2. Are they all told by the same people?
3. Where do they happen?

Watch the video again and complete these activities:

STORY 1: Say if the sentences are True (T) or False (F).

THE TWINS WERE 7 WHEN THE STORY HAPPENED.
THE GIRLS LIKED THE DOCUMENTARY SECTION.
THE MAN SHE GRABBED PRETENDED TO BE HER FATHER.
TO SCAPE FROM THAT SITUATION THE GIRL PRETENDED TO BE DEAF.
SHE FELT LIKE A ZOMBIE.

STORY 2: Order the events.

Her mum laughs.
The group is making the line to Neverland.
The girl "boops" someone's butt.
The group comes into the dark tunnel.
The stranger turns around.
The girl runs away.

STORY 3: Infer the meaning of the expression and match them with their meanings.

Doo Doo	-to be angry
be a chill person	-to be a bad person in a film or book
be a baddie	-to be relaxed
to out someone	-to publish a situation when the person involved doesn't want it to be known.
to get mad	- excrement
