

1. Listening - Careers advisor

FOR REAL PLUS pre-intermediate | Unit 9 Cyber Homework 1

Listen to part of a radio interview with a careers advisor. Key in the missing words. Write one word in each gap.

Dave says that it's important to choose the [] that you want to work in.

Examples of jobs in health care include being a doctor, a nurse or a [].

It takes years to become a university [].

A job as a telephone [] might lead on to a career in telecommunications.

Not everyone working in the [] profession is a lawyer.

But if you worked as a camera [], you'd be able to see what the director does.

2. Grammar - Second conditional

FOR REAL PLUS pre-intermediate | Unit 9 Cyber Homework 1

Complete the sentences using the second conditional.

What [] (you do) if you [] (find) some money in the street?

If I [] (have) one wish, I [] (take) a trip around the world.

The teachers [] (help us) if we [] (ask) them to.

If Jack [] (ask you) out, [] (you go)?

He must be ill. If he [] (not be ill), he [] (be) at school.

I [] (not do) that if I [] (be) you.

Key in the following questions and sentences in the second conditional.

What / you do / if you / see / a thief stealing from a shop?

If I / find / an ancient coin / I / take it to a museum.

If I / be you / I / say sorry to him.

If you / work harder / you / do better at school.

If you / come home late / your parents / be angry?

I / buy a motorbike / if my parents / allow it.

If I / be you / take the bus home.

What / you do / if a stranger / give you / a lot of money?

Complete the wishes with the past simple.

I can't ice skate.

I wish I .

I haven't got blonde hair.

I wish I .

My parents don't let me stay out late at night.

I wish they .

I have to study tonight.

I wish I .

I'm not good at sports.

I wish I .

I don't live in a hot country.

I wish I .

5. Vocabulary - Careers

FOR REAL PLUS pre-intermediate | Unit 9 Cyber Homework 1

Match the jobs and the industries.

| | |
|----------------------|------------------------|
| a camera operator | information technology |
| a physiotherapist | the film industry |
| a teacher | education |
| a travel agent | health care |
| a lawyer | tourism |
| a book designer | the legal profession |
| an IT consultant | telecommunications |
| a telephone engineer | publishing |

6. Vocabulary - Careers

FOR REAL PLUS pre-intermediate | Unit 9 Cyber Homework 1

Match the qualities with the people.

| | |
|--|-----------------------|
| She can always be trusted to do what she has to do. | has an eye for detail |
| He always wears the correct clothes for a formal occasion. | outgoing |
| She isn't quiet and shy. | adaptable |
| She is never rude to people. | reliable |
| He is happy to change to suit the situation. | smart |
| She notices small things. | polite |

8. Dialogue - A job interview

FOR REAL PLUS pre-intermediate | Unit 9 Cyber Homework 1

X Close

Put the dialogue in the correct order. Then listen and check.

Can you describe your computer skills?

Please come in. Do sit down.

I see. Tell me about yourself. What skills and qualities do you have?

Have you ever done this sort of job before?

And why do you want this job?

OK. What was your best subject at school?

Man: My name's Archie Tricker.

Woman: Nice to meet you.

Man:

Woman: No, but I've helped out in my father's office. He is in the same business.

Man:

Woman: Well, I'm hard-working. I think I'm very organised... reliable... And I would say efficient too.

Man:

Woman: Probably Maths. I was good at English too.

Man:

Woman: I've got lots of experience and I've used most common programs.

Man:

Woman: It's the field I've always wanted to work in and I think it would give me valuable experience.