

ReadingRead the following passage and answer the questions:

In China, his nickname is “Little Giant.” In the West, they call him the “Great Wall.” Yao Ming is 7 feet 6 inches (2.29 meters) tall. He was born on September 12, 1980, in Shanghai, China. His parents were both tall. Their beds were extra-long, and their clothes and shoes were in special large sizes.

His dad was a successful basketball player. Yao wasn’t interested in basketball as a child. He was tall but very thin, and he wasn’t very strong. Yao’s parents were very encouraging, and by the age of 12, he was serious about basketball. His progress at Shanghai’s sports academy was excellent. Soon he was on his local youth team.

Yao’s big chance to play for the Chinese national team was in 1999 in the Asian Cup. By 2002, he was a member of the Houston Rockets. At the opening ceremony of the Olympic Games in Beijing in 2008, he was the flag carrier for the entire Chinese team and a member of the basketball team. Yao Ming is a celebrity, and his smiling face appears in commercials around the world.
