

Direction: Sort the statements below into the correct sections of the Venn diagram.

No energy required

Both moves molecules from high to low concentration

Occurs directly through the lipid bilayer

Use transport proteins

Both involve the transport large molecules

Movement of water only

Passive transport

If the concentration is high outside, both use the cell membrane

