Exercise 1: Choose the suitable connectors (từ nối) to complete the following sentences.

1. Phong has to study harder; otherwise / therefore, he may fail the exam.
2. Anna joined too many school clubs; however/ therefore, she got bad marks at the mid-term exam.
3. Mi wants to have more friends, but / and she doesn't connect well with others.
4. Students can work in groups, or / for they can work in pairs.
5. My friend likes showing off her new things; however/ therefore, she often posts pictures on social media.
6. You should study hard; otherwise / however, you will fail the exam.
7. In some forums teens can get advice from peers; however/ therefore, my friends often use those forums to share their problems.
8. My mom wants me to attend the extra classes; however / otherwise, she is also afraid that I can be stressed.
9. Our students can participate in any club they like, or / but they shouldn't try to join all the school clubs at the same time.
10. Minh told his teachers about the school bullies; otherwise / therefore, the bullies wouldn't leave him alone.

LIVEWORKSHEETS