

Not your average footballer

Tim Simon is a nineteen-year-old sports phenomenon! He's his school's _____ valuable football player and he scores more goals _____ any other striker in the entire city. Last school year alone, he scored over twenty goals! _____, this is not why Tim's story is so unique. As a result _____ a tragic boating accident when he was ten, Tim lost his left arm. I had _____ opportunity to interview Tim at the local shopping centre, where the teams next big match _____ being promoted.

Tim said that when he started playing football a _____ years ago, many of his friends and teachers _____ him that he wouldn't be able to do it _____ his condition. At that time, he couldn't _____ thinking that maybe they _____ right. Then one day, his dad said that _____ he wanted something badly enough, he should go for it. That's been his motto ever _____. That's why he always has 'GFI', which stands for Go For It, sewn onto ____ hats and shirts. Tim told me _____ he hated it when people treated him differently _____ of his disability. 'Now people realise, that it's football. I don't need two arms _____ play, I only use ma feet!' said Tim. He thinks that _____ all the difficulties, he has proved himself, and people treat him like ____ average teen. I certainly think he's above average when it comes _____ his sport abilities, and I'll make sure to cheer him on in the matches to come!

