

My first memories of my grandfather Ruskin are associated laughter, fun and (END) stories that would capture my attention. Grandfather's thick white beard made him look a pirate. He was usually (CASUAL) dressed and he disliked wearing a suit and a tie. Now that my grandfather has passed I miss chatting him. He was, (DOUBT), a real (INSPIRE) to me. I will always remember his (WISE) and his love of life.

Many people (STRONG) believe that (FRIEND) is more important than romantic love. (DOUBT), a life without friends would be filled with feelings of (LONELY) and isolation. We would never experience all the warmth that comes from sharing a close relationship someone. A real friend will always be faithful and (RELY). It will be someone to whom you can tell your deepest most personal thoughts in complete confidence.
