- First, you will have some time to look at the task, and then we will play the whole recording in one piece.
- Then, you will hear the recording again, but this time we will play the text in shorter sections to give you enough time to write down your answers.
- A = TRUE B = FALSE C = THE TEXT DOES NOT SAY

✓ Peter is a less experienced teacher than the woman.

B

16. The woman asks Peter because she would like to sound like a native speaker.

17. Peter doesn't think it's important for learners of English to sound like a native speaker.

18. This method only works if you can already understand English that is spoken quickly.

19. It's the first time the woman has heard about this method.

20. Parroting is actually more important than overshadowing.

21. The method only works if the learner speaks out loud.

22. Any authentic audio or visual material can be used, if it has a subtitle or a script.

23. Peter recommends that when students listen to the material for the first time, they should also read the text.

24. Overshadowing means that the student should repeat each sentence after the speaker.

25. This method was invented by a native speaker.

That is the end of TASK 3, and also the end of the Listening Exam.
