

Types of environments

choose and drag the correct answer according to the description of the environment

FOREST

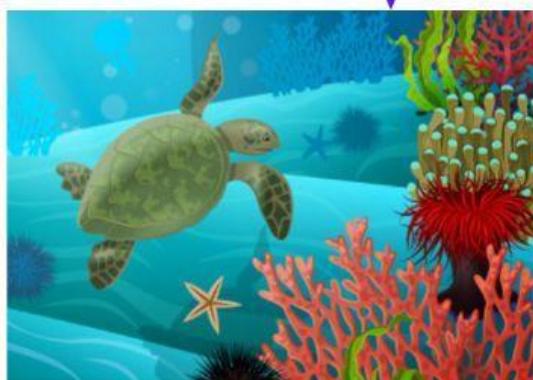

Is a calm fresh water environment, where ducks, frogs and fish live.

LAKE

Is a running freshwater environment

RIVER

OCEAN

This environment is a large body of salt water

This environment has many trees