

Activity 1

Let's review the information about narrative text.

Definition : Narrative text is an imaginative text, it can be a fictional or a modified true story.

Aim/Purpose : To entertain the readers by engaging them with a story that has a beginning, middle, and end.

Structures : There are orientation, complication, resolution, and reorientation.

Kinds : Fairy tales, mysteries, horrors, folklores, romances, science fictions, and fable.

Activity 2

Now, please read a story below and fill those blank spaces with appropriate words.

The Legend of Roro Jonggrang

Long ago, in the ancient kingdom of Prambanan, _____ a beautiful princess named Roro Jonggrang. She was desired by the powerful and magical Prince Bandung Bondowoso, who had conquered her kingdom. Roro Jonggrang _____ afraid of him, especially since he killed her father, so she set an impossible task. He must build a thousand temples in one night to win her heart.

Bandung Bondowoso the challenge and used his supernatural powers to summon his genie soldiers. They quickly, and by midnight, the temples were almost complete. Worried, Roro Jonggrang and her servants quickly set a trap by burning straw and pounding rice, making it seem like dawn had arrived.

The genies, fearing the sun, fled, leaving the task incomplete. Realizing he had been tricked, Bandung Bondowoso was furious. To punish Roro Jonggrang, he his magic to turn her into the thousandth statue, completing the temple complex. Today, these temples are known as Prambanan, and the statue is the Roro Jonggrang temple.

Activity 3

Match these statement below!

Paragraph 1	The problem solving of the story.
Paragraph 2	The problem arise of the story.
Paragraph 3	The information about setting and the main characters.
	The moral value of the story. It can be written or not.

Activity 4

Read these following statements. Choose True if the statement is right and False if the statement is wrong.

Statements	True	False
The story happened in Prambanan Kingdom.
Roro Jonggrang loved the prince.
The prince was a kind person.
Roro Jonggrang succeed to break the Bondowoso's plan.
Roro Jonggrang was cursed as a statue.

Activity 5

Answer these following questions based on the story!

1. Who are the main characters of the story?
2. Why did Roro Jonggrang reject the prince's proposal?

3. What was Roro Jonggrang trick to reject the proposal?
4. How was the end of the story?
5. What is the moral value of the story?