London is the biggest city in Britain, with more than 7 million people living and working there. It is one of the most important centres for business, tourism, and culture in the world. The city is divided into three main parts: the City of London, the West End, and the East End.

The City of London is the financial heart, full of banks, offices, and the Stock Exchange. The West End is known for its beautiful historical buildings, green parks, busy shopping streets, and entertainment venues like theatres and cinemas. It is where many wealthy people live. In contrast, the East End is home to many working-class families and is also where the Port of London is located.

London offers a wide range of attractions for visitors. There are famous museums like the British Museum and the Tate Gallery, which display art and history from around the world. One of the most well-known cinemas is the "Odeon." Oxford Street is a famous shopping destination with big department stores like Selfridges and John Lewis. Hyde Park, the largest park in London, is a peaceful place to walk, relax, or enjoy traditional British food like fish and chips.

OUTLINE

Introduction: There are some things I don't like about living in a city.

Body:

Problem 1: Too many vehicles → traffic jams + air pollution

Problem 2: Too crowded and noisy → hard to relax, feel stressed

Problem 3: Expensive cost of living → not affordable for many people

Conclusion: City life has many problems, so I prefer living in the countryside.

WRITING SAMPLE

There are some things I don't like about living in a city. Firstly, there are too many vehicles on the road, which causes traffic jams every day, especially during rush hour. These vehicles also make the air dirty. Secondly, the city is very crowded and noisy. It is difficult to find a quiet place to relax, and I often feel stressed. Lastly, life in the city is expensive. Prices for food, transportation, and even rent are very high. Many people have to work long hours just to afford their living costs. For these reasons, I think living in the countryside is better. It is more peaceful, cleaner, and more affordable.
