

Monday 22nd December

I was eleven years old today. I had a great birthday party and received many excellent presents. All (1) my friends came to my party and my mother made (2) biggest birthday cake ever. After the party, I sat down and opened all of the presents. My uncle gave me a computer game called “A great adventure”. I haven’t tried to (3) it yet, but I think it’s interesting. My friend Richard bought me a pair of beautiful striped gloves. I also got a new drum from my mum and dad. It’s made of metal and it sounds amazing. But the present that I liked the most was (4) my grandparents. They gave me a little kitten with long, soft, silver-coloured fur! I think I’m (5) to name it ‘Grey’. I promised that I will take good care of it.
