

TYPES OF HOUSES IN COLOMBIA

1. Read and complete the information with the words below.

bamboo	rivers	cement	adobe	desert	vines
farmhouses	flats	wood	clay roof	cactus wood

In Colombia, we can find many different houses.

The colonial houses are made of _____ walls and _____ . They are very old and we can still see them in towns like Villa de Leyva or Santa Fe de Antioquia.

The stilt houses are built near the sea and _____. They are made of tropical _____ and palm leaves.

The Wayuu houses are in the _____ of La Guajira. They are made of mud, _____, and tree branches.

The Maloca is a big communal house. It is made of _____, wood, palm leaves, and _____ to tie everything.

In the countryside, we can see _____. They are usually made of bricks, stones, and metal roof.

In the cities, many people live in _____. These buildings are made of bricks, glass, _____, iron, and steel.

2. Match the house with its correct material.

Maloca

Adobe walls, clay roof and wood.

Wayuu house

Palm leaves, tropical wood like mangrove.

Flat/Apartment

Bricks, stones, metal roof, roof tiles and wood.

Stilt house

Bamboo, wood, palm leaves and vines.

Farmhouse

Bricks, cement, steel and glass, metal roof and roof tiles.

Colonial house

Mud, cactus wood, tree branches and palm leaves.

Houses

Bricks, cement, steel and glass.