

Vocabulary unit 11 Change

Instructions: Use the words in the box to complete the sentences.

concerned, anxious, hostile, criticism, resistance, ambivalent, in favour of, receptive, guidance, optimism, enthusiasm

1. He was feeling very _____ before giving the presentation.
2. The employees showed _____ to the new company policy.
3. I'm _____ about the environmental impact of this project.
4. The manager gave helpful _____ during the training.
5. Despite some _____ feelings, she agreed to the changes.
6. The crowd was openly _____ toward the speaker.
7. We received some valuable _____ from the customers.
8. The board is _____ to new ideas and innovation.
9. Are you _____ or against the new budget plan?
10. There's a lot of _____ about the upcoming product launch.
11. Her _____ helped the whole team stay positive.
12. His _____ attitude helped him deal with the problem calmly.

Instructions: Rewrite the sentence using the word in parentheses without changing the meaning.

1. People didn't want to accept the new policy. (resist)

2. She was both excited and nervous about the opportunity. (ambivalent)

3. He happily received the feedback. (receptive)

4. They tried to stop the rumor from spreading. (prevent)

5. We need to put this strategy into action. (implement)
