

Say your name and say your age,
Like the first line on a page.

"I am _____, I'm twelve, thirteen,"
Clear and simple, nice and clean.

Talk about family, brother or sister,
You can say both, you can say neither.
Add your birthday, month and day,
These are words we often say.

When you meet, ask questions too,
"What's your name? How old are you?
Do you have siblings? When's your birthday?"
That is how we share each day.
