

Textbook: Learning Zone 4

Unit 1: City Life, Country Life

page: 8 & 9

Student's Name: _____ Date: ____/____/____ marks: ____/100

The letter f stands for the / f / sound. The consonant digraphs gh and ph can also stand for the / f / sound. The letters ff can also come together and stand for the / f / sound.

Complete the words in the sentences.

1. I have a different class every day after school.
2. She didn't like wearing the wool sweater because it felt rou____.
3. My uncle's children are my father's ne____ews.
4. Will needs to change his shirt because he has a stain on the cu____.

Complete the sentences with an "f" sound word.

1. An elephant has a long trunk and rough skin.
2. Did you hear the _____ ring?
3. There is a fence in front of the _____ to protect people.
4. Don't _____ when you little brother falls!
5. She has a _____, and she doesn't feel well.
6. I took a _____ of Angkor Wat.
7. A _____ likes to play in the ocean.