

Verb + Preposition vs. Adjective + Preposition

This homework will help you practice recognizing whether a sentence uses a Verb + Preposition or an Adjective + Preposition. Pay attention to the word before the preposition.

Pattern	Examples	Sentences
Verb + Preposition	look at rely on talk about pay for apply for	They looked at the map. I rely on my best friend. We talked about the movie. She paid for the meal. He applied for college.
Adjective + Preposition	interested in proud of worried about famous for bored with	She is interested in music. He is proud of his son. I am worried about the exam. The city is famous for its culture. They are bored with the TV show.

Decide if the sentence uses a Verb + Preposition or an Adjective + Preposition:

1. She is responsible for cleaning the classroom.
2. They looked at the stars all night.
3. He applied for a new passport.
4. She is worried about her friend.
5. My kids are afraid of loud noises.
6. They talked about the new project.
7. He is famous for his paintings.
8. She is very good at math.
9. They are bored with the lecture.
10. Babies rely on their parents for everything.
11. She paid for the groceries with a credit card.
12. He is interested in sports.
13. They are excited about their upcoming vacation.
14. She is proud of her achievements.
15. We depend on electricity every day.