

Write a short narrative of the growth and development of the town or city where you live. Mention important events and anything it might be famous for. Remember to use narrative tenses.

