

Choose the correct adjective, A, B, or C.

1 Someone who doesn't go to emotional extremes

A bad-tempered B tight-fisted C sensible

2 The kind of person who gets angry easily

A easy-going B hot-headed C strong-willed

3 A person who is arrogant about their own abilities

A big-headed B self-confident C well-balanced

4 Someone who expresses one opinion to you and then the opposite to other people

A open-minded B well-balanced C two-faced

5 Someone who doesn't like spending money and tries to avoid it

A strong-willed B tight-fisted C bad-tempered

6 Someone who often forgets things

A easy-going B absent-minded C laid-back 7 Someone who has a limited way of thinking about things, intolerant of other people's ideas.

A strong-willed B absent-minded C narrow-minded

8 Someone who thinks only about their own needs

A self-confident B self-centered C big-headed

9 A person who is fairly relaxed

A open-minded B easy-going C absent-minded

10 Someone who loves making new friends and talking to people.

A outgoing B easy-going C naïve

Select the best option to complete the given ideas suitably.

11. Although Anna is very smart, she can sometimes believe anything people tell her. Her friends say she's a bit ____.

a) witty b) naïve c) hardworking d) congenial

12. Jacob always refuses to spend money, even when it's necessary. People call him ____.

a) cheap b) witty c) hardworking d) standoffish

13. Maria makes everyone feel comfortable with her warm smile and friendly attitude. She is truly ____.

a) congenial b) stuck-up c) mean d) pig-headed

14. When John meets new people, he keeps his distance and doesn't open up easily. He seems ____.

a) naïve b) hardworking c) standoffish d) witty

15. Clara brags about her expensive clothes and often looks down on others. Her classmates describe her as ____.

a) stuck-up b) congenial c) hardworking d) cheap

16. Even when everyone shows evidence that he's wrong, Mark refuses to change his mind. He is very ____.

a) mean b) pig-headed c) witty d) open-minded

17. Sofia studies long hours and never gives up until her work is finished. She is extremely ____.

a) hardworking b) witty c) naïve d) standoffish

18. My grandpa refuses to accept new ideas and believes only his way is right. He is often criticized for being ____.

a) witty b) narrow-minded c) congenial d) kind-hearted

19. Laura always has a clever response or a funny remark that makes people laugh. She's very ____.

a) naïve b) witty c) stuck-up d) mean

20. Whenever Michael doesn't get what he wants, he says hurtful things just to make others feel bad. I'd say he's really ____.

a) mean b) congenial c) cheap d) hardworking