

In this essay, the writer describes how his 2 siblings are both similar and different. Identify the four parts of the essay [A–D], then complete the gaps [1–30].

A _____	I come from an extended f¹ _____ with a lot of siblings, aunts, uncles, and c² _____. We all share quite a lot of personality traits and interests, but we are certainly not exactly a³ _____! In this e⁴ _____, I am going to explain how similar and d⁵ _____ my elder brother and little sister a⁶ _____.
B _____	On the one hand, Yassine and Yasmine share a lot in c⁷ _____. We like their company b⁸ _____ they are fun-loving and ch⁹ _____. It is never dull listening to their j¹⁰ _____ and exciting adventures. In a¹¹ _____, he exercises daily and enjoys riding his bike, and s¹² _____ does she. When it is warm in summer, they s¹³ _____ in the sea and when it is chilly in winter, they go to an indoor p¹⁴ _____. He is a top student, and she is a model student, t¹⁵ _____. Last but not least, n¹⁶ _____ of them ever visited China before, but they are both crazy about C¹⁷ _____ food.
C _____	On the other hand, my siblings h¹⁸ _____ some striking differences. For e¹⁹ _____, unlike Yasmine, Yassine is very tall and has short d²⁰ _____ hair. Besides, while she always keeps her room clean and t²¹ _____, he seems to live in a messy cave. We a²² _____ hate it when he invites his noisy f²³ _____ home, but it makes us feel relaxed when she p²⁴ _____ soft piano music in the living room. Moreover, although they often see films, Yasmine usually watches animations on TV, w²⁵ _____ Yassine often goes to the cinema to watch the latest action m²⁶ _____.
D _____	It is true that my t²⁷ _____ siblings have a wide age gap, look different and enjoy distinct tastes, but this never made t²⁸ _____ quarrel with each o²⁹ _____. On the contrary, their sense of respect and appreciation i³⁰ _____ indeed the source of our pride and inspiration.

All rights reserved © Nizar A. Aziz