

STARRY STARRY NIGHT

Task one: Listen choose the correct words.

Starry, starry night, paint your palette blue / green and grey
Look out on a summer's day with eyes that know the darkness in my mind / soul
Shadows on the hills - Sketch / Draw the trees and the daffodils
Catch the breeze and the winter / autumn chills in colors on the snowy linen land
Now I understand what you tried to say to me
And how you suffered / struggled for your sanity and how you tried to set them free
They would not hear you / listen, they did not know how; Perhaps they'll listen now
Starry, starry night - Flaming flowers that brightly blaze
Swirling clouds in violet / purple haze reflect in Vincent's eyes of China blue
Colors changing hue - Morning fields of amber / yellow grain
Weathered faces lined in pain are soothed beneath the artist's / painter's loving hand
Now I understand what you tried to say to me
And how you suffered for your sanity and how / why you tried to set them free
They would not listen, they did not know how; Perhaps / Maybe they'll listen now
For they could not love you but yet / still your love was true
And when no dream / hope was left in sight on that starry, starry night
You took your life, as lovers often do
But I could have told you, Vincent
This world was never meant for one as wonderful / beautiful as you
Starry, starry night - Portraits / Paintings hung in empty halls
Frameless heads on nameless walls with eyes that watch the world and can't forget
Like the strangers that you've met - the ragged people / men in ragged clothes
The silver thorn, a bloody rose lie crushed and broken on the virgin snow
Now I think I know what / that you tried to say to me
And how you suffered for your sanity
And how you tried to set us / them free
They would not listen, they're not listening still Perhaps they never / always will
