

Social Studies 5

4-3

I. Identify the right being described in each situation. Type the letter in the box.

- | | |
|--|-------------------------|
| ___ 1. Jin always prays at night with his family. | a. to be born |
| ___ 2. Karen stays in the orphanage which she considers her home for 5 years now. | b. to have a name |
| ___ 3. Suzy gave birth to a baby girl yesterday. | c. to have a shelter |
| ___ 4. Jay's parents always guide him when using the internet so he can be away from harm. | d. to have a family |
| ___ 5. The couple adopted a beautiful baby girl from the orphanage. | e. to be healthy |
| ___ 6. Ryan teaches his son manners when talking to other people. | f. to be happy |
| ___ 7. Vina makes sure Bea drinks her vitamins and exercises daily. | g. to be protected |
| ___ 8. Everyone knows the bright and bubbly girl in school, Lisa. | h. to education |
| ___ 9. Kevin's parents always give him toys and make sure they have time to bond with each other so Kevin can be joyful child. | i. to express faith |
| ___ 10. Jennie's parents enrolled her to a prestigious school. | j. to learn good values |

II. Choose true or false.

- _____ 1. Our needs are the same as our rights.
- _____ 2. Our family are only those people who are related to us by blood.
- _____ 3. Having a name is important for our identity and recognition.

_____ 4. Children can always protect themselves from harm.

_____ 5. When kids are happy, they will be able to think well and do good things.