

Worksheet: The Barter of Panay

Subject: Araling Panlipunan (Social Studies)

Grade Level: 3

Topic: The Barter of Panay

I. Read and Learn

A long time ago, before the Spaniards came to the Philippines, the island of Panay was bought by ten (10) Bornean datus from the Ati people. The leader of the Atis was Datu Marikudo, and the leader of the Bornean datus was Datu Puti. The Atis gave them land in exchange for gold, jewelry, and other treasures. This peaceful trade is known as the Barter of Panay.

The new settlers established their first settlement in Aninipay (Panay Island) and later spread to Iloilo, Capiz, and Antique.
