| ...My sister and I share all the chores. We have cards with the chores and our names on each side. Once there is a household chore, I flip over the card and if it has my sister's name, it means it's her chore to do. Do you hate doing chores or don't you mind them? Is it a good idea to pay kids for doing chores? What are some reasons why kids should help out around the house?Yesterday I went to Amazon and bought a book... |
