didn't like it at all because I loved to play the guitar. When I was ten, I bought my first record with some birthday money. I think it was the record by the Beatles.

As I grew older, my musical taste changed. When I was a teenager, we used to go to clubs and pop concerts to see groups playing live, mostly rock and pop. At that time, I didn't like classical music at all. Later, when I went to university, I really got into classical music and started going to concerts. I was particularly keen on opera.

Nowadays, I listen to all sorts of music, but I'm not too keen on loud rock music. On the whole, I prefer classical music and opera, but I still listen to pop music in my car and play the guitar sometimes. I haven't been to any concerts for ages, but I've always got a CD at home. Music is an important part of my life.

37. What is Andrew's earliest memory of music?

A. Learning to play the guitar at school
B. Going to rock concerts as a teenager
C. Listening to songs his mother sang
D. Watching music shows on TV

38. Why didn't Andrew like learning the piano?
