

Family Tour at the Ragunan Zoo

Last Saturday, my family and I decided to visit Ragunan Zoo. It was a beautiful, sunny day, perfect for an outdoor trip. We left our house early in the morning to avoid the traffic. I was very excited because it was my first time visiting a zoo.

First, when we arrived, we bought our tickets and went straight to see the monkeys. They were so funny! Some of them were playing and jumping from one tree to another. Then, we walked to the big cat enclosure. I was amazed to see a lion and a tiger. They looked very strong and majestic. After that, we had a short break and ate some snacks near the elephant section. The elephants were enormous! We even saw a zookeeper feeding one of them. Next, we visited the reptile house, but I didn't stay long because I'm a bit afraid of snakes. Finally, before we went home, we bought some souvenirs at the gift shop. I bought a small stuffed giraffe to remember our fun day.

It was a fantastic day, and I learned a lot about different animals. I hope we can go back to the zoo again soon. It was truly a memorable experience.
