

★ Look and read. Choose the correct words and write them on the lines.

There is one example.

	lifeguard	mechanic
	homeless	repairman	charity
helpful	This word describes a kind and cooperative person who offers to help others. helpful
	1 It is this person's job to look after people while they are swimming.
	2 This person repairs and looks after motor vehicles.		unselfish
stingy	3 This word describes a kind person who enjoys looking after people or animals.
	4 It is this person's job to install or repair the water pipes in your home.
	5 This word describes a person who thinks about other people's needs first.
unkind	6 This word describes someone who isn't generous with money.		caring
	7 This word describes someone who won't help you or do anything that you ask.
	8 Contact this person if you need to get something fixed.
	9 This word describes someone who is mean and not kind.
	10 It is this person's job to install or repair the lights in your home.
dangerous	electrician	plumber
	uncooperative	community

Name:

✦ George and Sarah are at home. They're talking about what they would do if they had ten million dollars. George is asking Sarah some questions. What does Sarah say?

Read the conversation and choose the best answer. Write a letter (A–H) for each answer. You do not need to use all the letters. There is one example.

Example

George: What would you do if you had ten million dollars?

Sarah: D

Questions

11

George: What kind of charity would it be?

Sarah:

12

George: Which animals would you help protect?

Sarah:

13

George: Would you spend all the money on your charity?

Sarah:

14

George: Who would you give it to?

Sarah:

15

George: Thanks, Sarah! You're a very generous friend.

Sarah:

Name:

- A If I did those things, I'd have more fun.
- B Not all of it. I'd give some away.
- C You're welcome, George. So are you.
- D I'd set up my own charity. (example)
- E One that helps endangered animals.
- F My family and friends... and that includes you!
- G I'd really appreciate that.
- H Definitely elephants and probably rhinos, too.