2. Many years ago only emperors had purple clothes in Rome.

3. Men never wore high heels in the past.

4. Many companies try to be eco-friendly. For example, Stella McCartney bags are made out of corn.

5. The first models weren't people. Fashion companies used dolls.

6. Baby boys wore dresses until they were 5-6 years old.

7. Modern people recycle about 85% of old clothes.

8. Men's shirts have buttons on the right while women's shirts have buttons on the left.

9. In the year 200, the Romans created different shoes for the left and right feet.

10. In the 1800s people wore live chameleons as brooches.

LIVEWORKSHEETS