PART 1 – LISTENING

Listen to the story carefully and fill in the blanks below.

(Audio will play once you add it in Liveworksheet using Eleven Labs.)

Script for Eleven Labs:

One day, a lion was sleeping in the forest. Suddenly, a little mouse ran over his face. The lion woke up and caught the mouse with his paw. The mouse cried, "Please don't eat me! I will help you one day." The lion laughed but let the mouse go. A few days later, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. The mouse came and chewed the rope. The lion was free. The moral of the story is: Kindness is never wasted.

PART 3 – READING

Read the text below carefully and answer the questions.

Once upon a time, a lion caught a little mouse. The mouse begged for mercy and promised to help the lion one day. The lion laughed but set the mouse free. A few days later, the lion was trapped in a hunter's net. The mouse heard his roar and came to help. She bit the rope and freed the lion. The lion thanked the mouse. From that day, they became good friends. Moral: Kindness and small acts can make a big difference.

1. Who are the main characters in the story? _____
2. What problem did the lion have? _____
3. How did the mouse help the lion? _____
4. What did the lion learn? _____
5. True or False: The lion ate the mouse at the end. _____

PART 4 – WRITING

Write your own short fable (3–5 sentences) with a moral lesson.

You can use animals as characters.

Example:

A rabbit and a turtle had a race. The rabbit was too confident and slept. The turtle walked slowly and won.

Moral: Don't underestimate others.
