Every person has a different opinion about their favorite place at school. Personally, my favorite room at school is still classroom. Now let me tell about my favorite classroom.

The classroom is on the second floor of the school. It has a cozy, organized feel. The walls are painted a soft, warm brown, creating a calm and welcoming atmosphere. Large windows run along the sides of the room, letting in plenty of sunlight and making it feel bright and cheerful. In the front of the room, there is a spacious blackboard, where the teacher writes the day's lessons clearly. The desks are neatly arranged in rows, with about 14 chairs lined up on each side, all facing the front, ensuring that everyone has a clear view of the board. At the back of the room, there are shelves filled with textbooks, reference materials, and various learning tools. The clean and quiet environment helps me focus, allowing me to study without distractions. This classroom isn't just a place to learn; it's a space that inspires me to do my best.
