

Exercise 1: Subject Relative Pronouns

1. We need to hire someone. Someone has excellent public speaking skills.

→ We need to hire someone (who / which) has excellent public speaking skills.

2. Geology is the study of the rocks and solids. They make up the Earth.

→ Geology is the study of the rocks and solids (who / that) make up the Earth.

3. A lot of the products are traded online. _____

→ A lot of the products (who/which) are traded online are cheaper than their regular prices.

4. John Cox is one of the managers. _____

→ John Cox is one of the managers (who/which) is interested in leading the upcoming project.