B. Underline the verbs in the sentences above and label each verb form as past simple (PS) or past continuous (PC).

PC

PS

Example: It was raining, and I didn't have an umbrella.C. Complete the sentences by writing the verbs in brackets in the past simple or past continuous.

- I (dance) when the music (stop).
- I (drink) coffee when the train (come).
- I first (meet) my wife when I (buy) shoes.
- I (have) lunch when my friend (arrive).
- I (write) an email to you when you (call).
- I (hear) the news while I (listen) to the radio.
- I (work) in the back garden when you (visit).
- There (be) a big storm when I (fly) to London.
- My friend (give) me a gift when I (feel) sad.
- A bird (land) on her head while I (take) her picture.
- He (work) at the post office the last time I (see) him.
- It (start) to snow as I (open) Christmas presents.

D. Correct the underlined errors in this story.

My friend ^{told} was telling me a funny story. He (1) is feeling like he needed a break, so he (2) was taking a weekend trip. He (3) is staying in a cheap hotel and his room (4) wasn't having a bathroom. He had to share one bathroom with two other rooms. During the night, he (5) was getting up to use the bathroom. He (6) wasn't locking the door of his room or take his key. When he (7) was going back to his room, he (8) was trying to open the door, but it (9) was locking. So, he (10) was going downstairs to the front desk and asked for the key, although he (11) is wearing only his underwear. The staff (12) was getting the key and (13) was opening the room, but someone (14) is sleeping inside! My friend (15) is trying to get into the wrong room! He then (16) was trying the next room. It (17) isn't being locked and his bags were there. He (18) was being so embarrassed!

E. Use the past continuous to write excuses using the information in brackets.

Example: Why didn't you answer the phone? (take a shower)

..... I didn't answer the phone because I was taking a shower.

1. Why didn't you send the letter? (look for a stamp)

.....
