Descriptive Text (Person)

Instructions:
Read the text carefully, then answer the questions below.

A Memorable Teacher

Everyone has a teacher who inspires them. For me, it's Mrs. Laila, my English teacher in junior high school. She never gets angry easily, but she is very strict about time. If we are late, we have to write a reflection about responsibility. Her classes are always interesting because she uses games and group discussions.

What makes her special is the way she treats students. She remembers every student's name and gives personal advice when we have problems. Last year, when I felt nervous before the English speech contest, she encouraged me to believe in myself. Because of her support, I won second place. I think she has changed the way I see learning — it's not about grades, but about effort and growth.
