Write the word under the pictures.

~~mean~~	message	worried	feel uncomfortable	parents
teacher	password	friends	secret	share

	mean

Top tips for writing advice!

1. You can use 'should' when you give advice, to tell someone what to do.
2. You can also use 'shouldn't' when you give advice, to tell someone what not to do.
3. You can use 'should' in questions, to ask for advice.

Read the sentence. Circle the correct answer.

a. Racecar73 got a _____ message. nice / mean / funny

b. You shouldn't answer messages if you feel _____. uncomfortable / happy / excited

c. An adult can help you block and report the _____. internet / computer / message

d. Star44's best friend wants to know her _____. family / plans / passwords

e. You shouldn't _____ passwords except with your parents. delete / share / hide

f. If you're worried, you should talk to your _____ or another adult. parents / friend / pet

Can you think of another online safety problem to ask Alex about? Write a message on the website. Next, imagine Alex's answer. Write that too!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Log in News Help Contact

Got a problem? Ask Alex!

Online Saftey > Problems and advice > Ask Alex

LIVEWORKSHEETS