

There are 14 inmates in a local prison. One prisoner can be released early. In order to be considered for early release, the inmates must have been doing something useful. Your job is to find out what the prisoners have been doing and decide who should be released early.

A. Complete the sentences describing the useful things the prisoners have been doing using the verbs below in the present perfect continuous.

Sentences 1,3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13: knit teach break up polish clean feed give sweep

Sentences 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14: mow squeeze sew cut hang up clear peel

Useful things the prisoners have been doing
1. Ivan.....	the warden's shoes every day.
2. Pablo	buttons onto inmates' shirts every day.
3. Sam.....	the other prisoners free tattoos whenever asked.
4. Gino	the prison lawns six times a week.
5. Yuri.....	fight between the prisoners whenever they happen.
6. Jack	the hair of the other prisoners whenever asked.
7. Ben.....	warm jumpers for his fellow inmates every evening.
8. Jim	the tables after every meal.
9. Ali	the floors of every cell in the prison block two times a day.
10. Joe	6 oranges for each inmate's breakfast every morning.
11. Ana	the common room every morning.
12. Ian	50 kg of potatoes before dinner once a day.
13. Ted	Spanish to the other prisoners every afternoon.
14. Ken	wet clothes on the clothes line every afternoon.

B. Now, talk with your classmates and decide which prisoner deserves to be released early.

--This will be considered for the speaking grading of the week

-Discuss, give your opinion and say why the person you chose is the best option for the early release.
