

Passion or Paycheck? Find your own way

Are you crazy (1) _____ a job that makes you feel alive, even if it doesn't pay much? Or are you focused on finding work that offers financial security but brings little joy? This is a (2) _____ which many young people must face when deciding their future. It's important to consider (3) _____ your passion, especially if it gives you purpose. But real life also demands bills to be paid and responsibilities to be met. That's why many people try to (4) _____ a balance between doing what they love and earning enough to live well. Some choose a suitable job path (5) _____ for creativity and stability, while others take the bold road of chasing dreams. And often, those who (6) _____ are the ones doing what they love, even when the journey is hard. Explore helpful tips and real success stories to guide your next step.

- 1, A. in                                      B. with                                      C. for                                      D. about
- 2, A. life question serious                                      B. life serious question
C. serious life question                                      D. serious life question
3. A. follow                                      B. to follow                                      C. following                                      D. to following
- 4, A. make                                      B. strike                                      C. set                                      D. give
- 5, A. allowing                                      B. to allow                                      C. allow                                      D. allowed
- 6, A. successful                                      B. success                                      C. succeed                                      D. successfully

The future of work: Will robots replace us?

Facts and Figures:

- The rise of automation and artificial intelligence is causing a major (7) _____ in how work is done in many industries.
- The disappearance of some jobs may (8) _____ machines doing tasks faster and more accurately than humans.

Positive Actions!

- People need to improve their skills on a regular (9) _____ to keep up with changes in the job market
- (10) _____ jobs that need human emotions and creativity, almost (11) _____ field may be affected by technology.
- New kinds of work are also being created, which gives workers a chance to explore exciting opportunities.
- Government and companies should support learning (12) _____ so that every worker has the chance to adapt to this new world of work.

- |                    |               |                   |                   |
|--------------------|---------------|-------------------|-------------------|
| 7, A. recurrence   | B. stagnation | B. disturbance    | D. transformation |
| 8, A. kick off     | B. adhere to  | C. result from    | D. bring about    |
| 9, A. basis        | B. level      | C. rate           | D. extent         |
| 10, A. For fear of | B. Except for | C. In addition to | D. In spite of    |
| 11, A. many        | B. some       | C. every          | D. another        |
| 12, A. strategies  | B. measures   | C. programs       | D. decisions      |