

English Lesson TryOut

Name:

Main Focus:

Read the text below to answer question number 1-5

Once upon a time, in a thick forest, there lived a clever deer. One day, a hungry tiger saw the deer drinking water at the river. The tiger thought, "That deer will be my dinner tonight." Slowly, the tiger crept toward the deer.

The deer saw the tiger's reflection in the water and quickly thought of a plan. He pretended not to see the tiger and said loudly, "Wow! What a big, strong tiger behind me! I wonder if he wants to help me fight the lion that's been chasing me."

The tiger was shocked. He thought, "A lion? I'd better run before it comes!" Without thinking twice, the tiger ran away as fast as he could. The deer smiled and continued drinking water peacefully.

1. What is the moral lesson of the story?

- A. We should never drink water in the forest.
- B. Strength is more important than intelligence.
- C. Clever thinking can help us out of danger.
- D. Lions are stronger than tigers.
- E. The deer should not have spoken loudly.

Part 2 – Yes / No Questions

2. Decide whether each statement is TRUE or FALSE!

#	Statement	Yes	No
A	The deer saw the tiger's reflection in the river.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
B	The lion helped the deer to escape.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
C	The tiger believed that a lion was nearby.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

3. Which of the following sentences show that the deer was clever?

- He saw the tiger's reflection in the water.
- He pretended not to see the tiger.
- He shouted and ran into the forest.
- He tricked the tiger into thinking a lion was coming.

4. What is the meaning of the word "crept" in paragraph 2?

- A. Walked slowly
- B. Jumped high
- C. Ran quickly
- D. Turned around
- E. Fell down

5. Why did the tiger run away from the deer?

- He was afraid of the lion the deer mentioned.
- He didn't want to eat anymore.
- He thought the deer was dangerous.
- The deer shouted loudly at him.